

ONLINE WEB LINKS DISCLOSURE

Our website contains links to other sites. If you elect to do business at a linked site, please be advised Woodstone Credit Union does not represent you or the linked site if you enter into a transaction unless that site is related directly to products or services offered by Woodstone Credit Union. You understand and agree that the Woodstone Credit Union is not responsible for and exercises no control over these linked sites, nor have we verified the accuracy, privacy, or security of the information on these linked sites. You further understand and agree that Woodstone Credit Union is not liable for any damages, losses or expenses that you may incur while using these linked sites. Please also be aware that Woodstone Credit Union is not responsible for the privacy practices of such sites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our site to read the privacy statements of each and every website. The Woodstone Credit Union privacy statement applies solely to information collected by our website. Some of the links from our site may take you off the Woodstone.com site to a "co-branded" site where you will see the Woodstone logo as well as the logo for another service provider. Co-branded sites include Kasasa.com and Checkingfinder.com. Any information you provide may be collected by the service provider and you are encouraged to read the privacy statement of that provider. We also have links from Woodstone.com to "fully branded" service provider sites. As you view the information on a fully branded site you will see a change in the URL but the pages appear as Woodstone Credit Union's and the service provider is not identified. All information collected on fully branded sites is used by Woodstone Credit Union only and is not shared or used for any purpose other than processing your application and providing the requested service. Fully branded sites include online lending application, online banking applications and online bill payment services.

Rev. 7/2010